SOCIETY

Miss Mabel Ernstrom was hostess at a prettily appointed New Year's "at home" on New Year's day, at her home, 1727 Gibson avenue.

Misses Elsie and Nellie Forrest were hostesses at a pleasant "watch party" on New Year's eve.

Misses Zura and Ferri Hess entertained last evening in honor of Misses Trixie and Evelyn Burton and James Hartman.

The marriage of Miss Dessie Spencer and Alexander W. Walker will occur at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Spencer, January 20.

Mrs. J. H. Spargo and Mrs. A. Q. Campbell gave a dancing party on New Year's night for the young people of the Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffith of Alaska, and James Hartman of Belmont College, Cal., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Hess.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Shaw entertained at dinner on New Year's eve in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffith and James Hartman.

The Misses Margaret Spargo and Evelyn Dalrymple left yesterday for the east to re-enter college, Miss Spargo going to New York City and Miss Dalrymple to Rockford, Ill.

Miss Hanna Dee of Salt Lake City returned to her home Monday, after a few days' visit here with her sisters, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong and Mrs. D. H. Ensign, and Miss Sylvia Dee.

Mrs. P. T. Ferris gave an enjoyable dancing party Thursday evening for the guests of the Virginia.

L. R. Foster and wife of Seattle are visiting Ogden friends for a few days.

Mrs. D. Thompson of Shoshone, Ida., is in Ogden spending a brief vacation.

Mrs. M. M. Dowley of West Jordan is visiting in Ogden for a few days.

Mrs. H. Day and daughter returned to their home in Ogden Monday after a stay of seven weeks in Evanston, the former having been visiting her mother, Mrs. John W. ain.

A. T. Wright has returned from southern California, where he has been spending the past two months with Mrs. Wright, the latter having gone there in the hope of benefiting her health. Mr. Wright states that his wife is considerably improved but will remain in Los Angeles for some time yet. They spent six weeks at Ocean Park before going to Los Angeles.

Miss Belle Dewey and Mrs. H. W. Horn of Salt Lake are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Brown of the Broom hotel.

Miss Lorelle Foley entertained a number of her friends at a "watch party" on Thursday evening, at her home on Jefferson avenue. At mid night the guests were summoned to the dining room, where a dainty lunch awaited them. The leap year idea was very successfully carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mathews and son have returned from a month's visit to Los Angeles.

Mrs. C. H. Gosling and Miss Emma Herschler leave Tuesday for a four months' trip to Manila, via the Southern Pacific and the steamer Siberia. Mrs. Gosling goes in search of health, a sea voyage having been advised by her physician, and Miss Herschler, for pleasure. Mr. Gosling may accompany them as far as San Francisco.

George Moyes, who has been spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Moyes, left yesterday for Chicago, where he will resume his studies.

The dance given New Year's eve by the Sege Lily Circle 174, Women of Woodcraft was a most enjoyable affair, both socially and financially, a large crowd attending to dance "The old year out and the new year in."

Miss Staley Eggleston was hostess at a delightful "watch party" New Year's eve at her home, 2620 Monroe. Thirty-five couples were present and cards and music, followed by a midnight lunch, contributed to a most pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kihlstrom entertained a circle of friends New Year's eve at a "watch party."

MARK BOWN ENTERTAINS.

The largest and most successful social affair of the week was the "watch party" given New Year's eve by Mark Brown, assisted by his mother, Mrs. Emma Smith, and sister, Miss Minnie Brown. The home was beautifully decorated. Pink and green was the color scheme, pink carnations, smilax, evergreens and holly being effectively used. In one corner was a canopy of pink and tinsel, beneath which little Miss Ethel Smyth presided over the punch bowl.

In a guessing contest, which provoked much merriment, Miss Peterson, Mr. Hadley and Mr. Warner cut for the prize, the last named producing the high card.

Following the serving of refreshments, which were dainty in every detail, a rare musical program was enjoyed. Clifford Ashby of Salt Lake, Miss Bessie Blair, Mrs. Heber Warner and the host were in excellent voice and sang with exquisite feeling a number of choice selections, and piano solos were charmingly rendered by Miss Frances Smyth and Miss Stella Stahr. An amusing feature of the program was the realistic impersonation of the quack doctor by Sam Olson.

On the last stroke of twelve the house was thrown open to greet the new year, while the old year, leaving behind it naught but memories of 1908, departed.

The guest list included Messrs. and Mesdames H. G. Warner, D. Ray Shurtliff, Mrs. Florence Stanford, Misses Glenna Wotherspoon, Birdie Wotherspoon Bertha Stone, Clara Peterson, Ellen Baker, Allie Bowen, Julia Anderson, Josie Murphy, Verna Fowler, Eva Hetzler, Delphia Hetzler, Elmer Bingham, Bessie Blair, Frances Smyth, Ethel Smyth, Stella Stahr, Tenette Bingham, Messrs. Clifford Ashby of Salt Lake, Castle Murphy, Mark Murphy, Henry Anderson, Sam Olson and Victor Olson, both of Salt Lake; Joseph E. Evans, Edwin Peterson, Fred Hodgson, Bert Hadley, Harry Nelson, George Wall, Edward Bingham, George Ensign.

WATCH PARTY.

Mrs. O. E. Williams and Mrs. Fred Mitchell were hostesses at a "watch party" New Year's eve, at the home of the former. The house was gayly decorated with holiday colors and emblems, holly and Christmas bells being much in evidence. Cards, games, and music were the diversions of the evening, and a delicious lunch was served at midnight.

Prizes at cards were won by Mesdames Robb, Anderson and Garr, and Messrs. Dittow, Brooks and Doran. The prize winners at other games were Mrs. Meyerstein and Miss Richards.

The guests included Messrs. and Mesdames J. B. Robb, W. M. Anderson, J. M. Doran, I. Dittow, F. Farrell, Fred Williams, Charles Garr, Mesdames Richards and Meyerstein, Misses Laing and Richards; Messrs. S. Brooks and C. H. O'Harett.

NEW YEAR JOLIFICATION.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Tucker entertained at a jolly "watch party" New Year's eve at their home on Grand avenue. About twenty guests enjoyed the splendid entertainment prepared by the hostess. The home was tastefully decorated with profusion of evergreens and mountain holly, and a miniature pine, brightly decorated, formed the centerpiece of the table. Each guest received a gift as a souvenir of the occasion.

GREENWELL-CLAYTON.

A very pretty wedding occurred last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when Edwin Clayton and Miss Lillie Greenwell were joined in marriage by Bishop McQuarrie of the second ward.

The wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bannister, rear 354 Twenty-eighth street. Decorations consisted mainly of lilies tastefully arranged, and in the dining room holiday colors were used.

A large reception was held, at which a host of friends and relatives wished the bride and groom many happy returns of the happy New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton are at home to friends at 2781 Grant avenue.

NEW YEAR PARTY.

A happily arranged affair was the one given Friday evening by Misses Alice and Edith Gray. The home was gay with holiday colors, and merry games followed by a luncheon were enjoyed.

The guests were Misses Mabel Lucas, Lillian Sooy, Margaret Smurthwaite, Flossie Lucas, Lillian Newton, Frances Parker, Blanche Williams, Helen Gibbs, Louise Pierce, Mary Young, Eloise Gibbs, Allie Gunnell, Messrs. Claude Lint, Thomas Horn, Ed Browning, Joseph Evans, Ben Newton, Charlie Parker, Ralph Emerson, Ralph Johnson, H. R. Bucks, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Elderkin.

DELIGHTFUL "WATCH PARTY." Among the delightful "watch parties" of the week was that at which Miss Blanche Williams was hostess. Red and Green predominated in the color scheme, holly, evergreen and red bells being used.

Prizes awarded for the guessing contest were claimed by Miss Mary Young and Claude Lint.

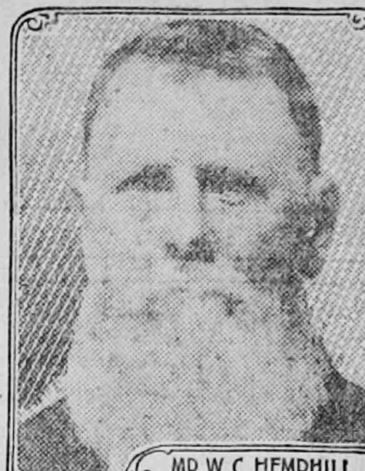

Those present were Misses Alice Gray, Lillian Sooy, Mabel Lucas, Edith Gray, Martha Gibbs, Mary Young, Eloise Gibbs, Allie Gunnell, Flossie Lucas, Frances Parker, Nellie Bowman; Rev. and Mrs. N. S. Elderkin; Messrs. Charlie Park, Tom Horn, Claude Lint, Ralph Emerson, Bucks.

TOLSTOI CIRCLE.

The last meeting of the Tolstoi Circle before the holidays was held with the president, Mrs. Clancy, on Tuesday, December 8.

After the usual business routine the letters of the Brownings were taken up. Short biographical sketches of Mr. Browning and his wife were given. Mrs. Rarig then read one of the first letters written by Robert Browning to Elizabeth Barrett, and the answer was read by Mrs. Starratt. Mrs. Clancy read one of Mrs. Browning's letters, written immediately af-

"I CAN recommend Peruna as a good medicine for chronic catarrh of the stomach and bowels. I have been troubled with it severely for over a year, and also a cough."

"Now my cough is all gone, and all the distressing symptoms of catarrh of the stomach and bowels have disappeared. I will recommend it to all as a rare remedy."—Mrs. F. E. Little, Tolono, Ill.

"I HAD catarrh of the stomach, bowels and lower internal organs. Had a great deal of pain in my right hip, which felt like rheumatism. Also, pain in my internal organs. The water was highly colored, my back was weak, was constipated, and very restless."

"I commenced to take Peruna according to directions, and began to improve. I have taken ten bottles of Peruna and think I am cured."—Mr. W. C. Hemphill, Louisville, Miss.

"MRS. H. G. GREEN and family, of Lewis Creek, Ind., write: 'We cannot express to you our thanks for what Peruna has done for mother.'

"When she began your medicine she was not able to be up all day, but now she is helping with the work and at present has gone on a visit. Her health is improved in general. No discharges. Good appetite. Sleeps well and looks well."

"BY following your instructions and taking your Peruna and Manalin I am cured of catarrh."

"I had catarrh for twelve years and quite a bad cough so I could not sleep nights. I do not have any cough now. If I feel anything in the throat I take a swallow of Peruna and I am all right."—Mr. W. D. Smith, Sr., 2440 Forest St., Port Huron, Mich.

ter her secret marriage to Mr. Browning, and its answer was given by Mrs. Condon. A general discussion followed, during which many helpful points were given by Mrs. Bishop, president of the Historical society.

A humorous poem was read by Mrs. Newcombe, after which the always pleasant social hour followed.

Adjournment was taken until Tuesday, January 5, the meeting to be held with Mrs. Clancy again at her home, 2528 Child's avenue.

NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION.

A most delightful and enjoyable New Year's reception was given at 538 Twenty-sixth street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Weatherby, January 1, 1909, from 8 to 10 o'clock p. m., by a coterie of Washington ladies of the United States Forest Service, including Mrs. M. L. Ring, Mrs. J. B. Burnham, Misses H. J. and A. R. Holberg, and Miss Nellie Huff.

The ladies receiving were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Weatherby. Little Miss Ruth Weatherby received the guests at the door, and Miss Gertrude Weatherby presided at the punch bowl.

The ladies were beautifully gowned in evening costumes.

Nearly all the members of the forest service were present, besides a
